

5TH ANNUAL AAHS RESEARCH SLAM

Sponsored by the Arizona Archaeological & Historical Society

The purpose of the Research Slam is to celebrate Southwestern archaeological research, raise funds for the AAHS Research and Scholarship fund, and have fun!

Researchers are invited to summarize their research in a dynamic 3-minute presentation. The Research Slam will take place during the Annual AAHS Holiday Party and Potluck. Presenters are limited to 10 researchers.

Sign up by December 3rd to reserve your spot and a chance to win! Send a project title to: Fran Maiuri at f.maiuri@gmail.com

Professionals, students, & independent researchers are encouraged to participate. The Research Slam will be followed by the Holiday Party and Potluck. Bring a dish to share! Libations will be provided!

No abstract needed!

WHEN: December 9, 2019

6 PM

WHERE: Archaeology SW
300 N Ash Ave
Tucson, AZ

Research Slam Rules

- Winners will be determined by popular vote (donations). All monies raised go to support more great research!
- First prize is a 10-year Kiva Level AAHS membership ($500 value) and bragging rights!
- 2nd & 3rd places also earn a prize!
- No fictitious research projects!
- The Golden Digger award will go to the person who raises the most donations from non-attendees.
- PPT slides, relevant props and creative presentation formats are encouraged.
- Presenters are encouraged to solicit funds from the audience through good humor, bribes, pleading & other non-violent means!
- AAHS encourages donations prior to the event to the Research and Scholarship Fund, however all voting for individual presentations occurs during the event.